Reports:

Fire Department: No Report.

SCWEMS: No Report

Public Works Department: Will Redmond, the Public Works Director, reported that the garbage truck is running good. Will is back to running to Laramie every other week with the town garbage. Will also reported that the heat is finally working again in the Water Treatment Plant. The system was full of air, which Will was able to drain. Will addressed the concerns regarding the OSEC on site sodium hypochlorite system. The company started in 1988, they plan to be around long term so we can get parts. It does hook up to our Scada. Will is still waiting to hear back from two other companies. Will fixed the leaking meter pit at 107 Alder. Will let the council know that he would like to look into getting more shut offs for the water mains.

HCJPB: No Report

Park Board: No Report

Cemetery Board: Brett Larson, a new member of the Cemetery Board, reported that he will be contacting the members of the cemetery board to set up a meeting. Brett mentioned that he would like to update the cemetery maps.

Museum Board: Angie Hobbs, the museum director, reported that the museum was open for Halloween. The trick or treaters were able to view the Odd Fellow's skeleton, which is on display at the museum. Director Hobbs also reported that she had taken the military uniform exhibits to the Hanna-Elk Mountain High School Veteran's Day breakfast held November 10th. It was also reported that the new rug for the museum's front entryway arrived, and it looks great. The front doors are still a concern, as they stick on the rug.
